

Brian Nicholls

Le Château de la Belle et la Bête

Work Experience

CMX, (July 06 – Present)
Chandler, Arizona

Engineering Intern/CAD Technician I: Prepare preliminary and final drainage reports for infrastructure roadways, residential developments, and commercial developments, mass grading design, final design of infrastructure roadways, residential developments, and commercial developments, exhibits and plan set production using AutoCAD.

The Cardon Company: (May 02 – May 03)
Gilbert, Arizona

Accounting Assistant: Financial spread sheets and reports, flow charts and graphs, data entry, and general office responsibilities

Education

Arizona State University – Civil Engineering (Aug. 03 – July 04)
Tempe, Arizona (Aug. 06 – Present)

Expected graduation: Spring 2009 – 4 year (B.S.) degree.

Certifications & Awards

NCEES: Fundamentals of Engineering (former EIT)
ASU: Dean's List

Qualifications

Hydrologic and Hydraulic Design: Able to perform hydrologic analysis for pre-developed and developed conditions. Additionally, able to perform hydraulic analysis of overland, street, and pipe flows.

Management: Responsible for small projects: engineering design and management of CAD staff to produce completed plans.

Company Life: Have worked for a small family business and a mid-sized corporation. Able to communicate well with staff at all levels within a company. Routinely perform a variety of tasks and move effectively between different tasks.

Technical Literacy: Highly skilled in popular software such as Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Word, Autodesk AutoCAD, Photoshop, and other programs which are specific to Civil Engineering. Frequently creates reports and professional presentations.

Brian Nicholls

Volunteer Activities

Proselyting Service Missionary - Guatemala (2004 - 2006)

Volunteer Mission to Guatemala; translation services for medical tour and provided local leadership for Guatemalan community.

Academic Associations

Chi Epsilon Honor Society: Member